Notes & Queries

HINTS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

No attention will be paid to communications unless accompanied with the full name and address of the writer.

Names and addresses of correspondents will not be given to inquirers.

We renew our request that correspondents, in referring to former answers or articles, will be kind enough to name the date of the paper and the page, or the number of the question.

Correspondents whose inquiries do not appear after a reasonable time should repeat them. If not then published, they may conclude that, for good reasons, the Editor declines them.

Persons desiring special information which is purely of a personal character, and not of general interest, should remit from $1 to $5, according to the subject, as we cannot be expected to spend time and labor to obtain such information without remuneration.

Any numbers of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN SUPPLEMENT referred to in these columns may be had at this office. Price 10 cents each.

Correspondents sending samples of minerals, etc., for examination, should be careful to distinctly mark or label their specimens so as to avoid error in their identification.

(1) J. L. asks: Is there a composition which, when applied to the ends of soft wood, will fill up the pores and leave a soft rubber-like surface? A. Try the following: Fuse together over a water bath and mix together equal parts of glue size and good glycerine. Continue the heating for several hours, and use hot. Almost any of the ordinary pigments may be used with this preparation to give color.

(2) M. T. asks: Will you please describe a simple or inexpensive method of producing chlorine in gas or liquid form for bleaching purposes? A. Chlorine may be prepared economically by heating in a stoneware or glass retort a mixture composed of common salt, 10 parts (by weight); manganese dioxide (black oxide), 8 parts; sulphuric acid, 24 parts; water, 12 parts. When this gas is passed through cold water, the water dissolves a considerable portion of it, and the solution (chlorine water) may be employed instead of the gas for bleaching purposes.

(3) G. W. K. asks: 1. Is there not a rule by which I can calculate the centrifugal force of governor balls when number of revolutions per minute and diameter of circle described by center of balls and weight of balls is known? A. Yes, you will find rules for governors in many works on the steam engine: "Haswell's Pocket Book," and "Templeton's Engineer's Common place Book." 2. With a common plain slide valve, and pressure in boiler at eighty pounds, how many pounds would it probably require to be applied to valve connecting rod for each square inch of valve surface? A. About one-fourth the unbalanced pressure.

(4) E. E. B. asks: How can I cure tobacco for chewing after it has dried? It was taken from the stalk about three months ago and hung in a barn tied up in hanks of about a quarter of a pound each. A. You will find this information in SUPPLEMENTS, Nos. 133 and 126. 2. I have a telephone running from house to shop, a distance of about 50 feet. I use very fine brass wire; the diaphragms are of tin type, and common wooden mouthpieces. It goes very well when the wire is wet, but when it is dry it rings, so that it is hard to understand. Will you tell me how to remedy it? A. Use a finer wire cable cord for your telephone.

MINERALS, ETC.—Specimens have been received from the following correspondents, and examined, with the results stated:

A. B. C., P. M.—It is a common variety of fossiliferous clay slate. Usually found in or near the coal measures.
