FOREIGN PATENTS. Their Cost Reduced.

The expenses attending the procuring of patents in most foreign countries having been considerably reduced, the obstacle of cost is no longer in the way of a large proportion of our inventors patenting their inventions abroad. CANADA.—The cost of a patent in Canada is even less than the cost of a United States patent, and the former includes the Provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, British Columbia, and Manitoba. The number of our patentees who avail themselves of the cheap and easy method now offered for obtaining patents in Canada is very large, and is steadily increasing. ENGLAND.—The new English law, which went into force on Jan. 1st, enables parties to secure patents in Great Britain on very moderate terms. A British patent includes England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland and the Channel Islands. Great Britain is the acknowledged financial and commercial center of the world, and her goods are sent to every quarter of the globe. A good invention is likely to realize as much for the patentee in England as his United States patent produces for him at home, and the small cost now renders it possible for almost every patentee in this country to secure a patent in Great Britain, where his rights are as well protected as in the United States. OTHER COUNTRIES.—Patents are also obtained on very reasonable terms in France, Belgium, Germany, Austria, Russia, Italy, Spain (the latter includes Cuba and all the other Spanish Colonies), Brazil, British India, Australia, and the other British Colonies. An experience of FORTY years has enabled the publishers of THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN to establish competent and trustworthy agencies in all the principal foreign countries, and it has always been their aim to have the business of their clients promptly and properly done and their interests faithfully guarded. A pamphlet containing a synopsis of the patent laws of all countries, including the cost for each, and other information useful to persons contemplating the procuring of patents abroad, may be had on application to this office. MUNN & CO., Editors and Proprietors of THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, cordially invite all persons desiring any information relative to patents, or the registry of trade-marks in this country or abroad, to call at their offices, 361 Broadway. Examination of inventions, consultation, and advice free. Inquiries by mail promptly answered. Address, MUNN & CO., Publishers and Patent Solicitors, 361 Broadway, New York. Branch Office, cor. F and 7th Streets, opposite Patent Office Washington, D. C.

Education in Relation to Manual Industry.

By ARTHUR MACARTHUR. One vol., 12mo, cloth. Price, $1.50. "It is believed that a system of rudimental science and manual art can be adapted to the usual methods of instruction, and, although the teaching of particular trades is neither desirable nor practical in schools, yet the time has now arrived when education should give the children partial knowledge in those general principles which relate to the trades and arts that are destined to become the business of their subsequent life."—Extract from Preface.

No postage will be asked from any subscriber to forward presents. PRESENTS 50 CENTS which you send us the regular price for a year's subscription and therefore we charge nothing for the present. Get five of your friends to join you by cutting this out and showing it to them. Send us $2.50 and we will send you THE POULTRY KEEPER for one year, and one numbered receipt for each of your subscribers, and one extra for your trouble. SEND TEN SUBSCRIBERS WITH $5.00 and we will send you 12 subscriptions and 13 receipts. 40 DAYS ONLY! This offer will hold good until February 22 only, as we shall limit the number of new subscribers in no case will they be received later than February 22. THE POULTRY KEEPER is the best and ablest edited Poultry Paper in the country and already has a circulation of 60,000 copies, and requires only 40,000 more to have the desired number. It contains sixteen pages, beautifully illustrated. Tells how to make poultry. 500 STEM-WINDING WATCHES FREE. In order that we may positively get the 40,000 more subscribers required by the 22d of February, the publishers have bought 500 Stem-winding Watches, and these 500 Watches will be given away to the first 500 people who answer this advertisement. If you send us 50 cents you will be entitled to one of these old, well known and reliable watches and one receipt good for one present. These watches are warranted to be good time-keepers. We will print in full in the February issue of THE POULTRY KEEPER the names and addresses of the winners of the 500 Stem-winding Watches, and the money will be carried out to the letter. Send now, don't wait. THE POULTRY KEEPER is well established having already 60,000 subscribers and is backed by ample capital, so we could afford otherwise. Undoubtedly some who read this new departure will think an offer to give away $30,000 in presents is most unreasonable and unprofitable; but let us say to all such persons that it costs anywhere from $25,000 to $150,000 to secure a large circulation to a paper. We know of a publisher that spent $50,000 in one week in giving away free copies and advertising his papers, and the money was well spent, for it secured for him an established circulation that paid good interest on the investment. Publishing nowadays must either be done on an extensive scale or not at all. It costs just as much for matter, and just as much for illustrations, electrotypes, editorial services, rent, and for setting up the type for a paper of 100 circulation as it does for a paper with 300,000 circulation. On small editions each one of the above items swells the cost of a single paper alarmingly, but on large editions the expense is spread over so many papers that it is almost entirely lost. Thus you see that large profits can be made only by doing a large business. This is precisely what we propose doing with THE POULTRY KEEPER. We will send a Printed List of the Awards free, and all presents will be forwarded to holders of receipts as they may direct. OUR OLD PATRONS AND SUBSCRIBERS, whom we number by thousands, should go to work at once and help us to increase our list by this grand and generous offer. Secures THE POULTRY KEEPER on a year and one receipt good for one present. One number of the paper is worth double the subscription price. As to our reliability, we refer those who do not know us to any Bank or Mercantile Agency. REMEMBER these are Presents to our Subscribers given to them absolutely Free, 10-Cent Postage Stamps taken.) Money in sums of $1 or less may be sent in an ordinary letter at our risk; larger sums should be sent by Registered Letter or Postal Note, and addressed to THE POULTRY KEEPER, 89 Randolph St., Chicago, Ill.
