ARCHITECTURAL BOOKS.
 Useful, Beautiful, and Cheap.

To any person about to erect a dwelling house or stable, either in the country or city, or any builder wishing to examine the latest and best plans for a church, school house, club house, or any other public building of high or low cost, should procure a complete set of the ARCHITECTS' AND BUILDERS' EDITION of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.
 The information these volumes contain renders the work almost indispensable to the architect and builder, and to persons about to build for themselves they will find the work suggestive and most useful. They contain colored plates of the elevation, plan, and detail drawings of almost every class of building, with specifications and approximate cost.
 Eight bound volumes are now ready and may be obtained, by mail, direct from the publishers or from any newsdealer. Price, $2.00 a volume. Stitched in paper covers. Subscription price, per annum, $2.50. Address and remit to

TO BUSINESS MEN

The value of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN as an advertising medium cannot be overestimated. It is many times greater than that of any similar journal now published. It goes into all the States and Territories, and is read in all the principal libraries and reading rooms of the world. A business man wants something more than to see his advertisement in a printed newspaper. He wants circulation. This he has when he advertises in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN. And do not let the advertising agent influence you to substitute some other paper for the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, when selecting a list of publications in which you decide it is for your interest to advertise. This is frequently done, for the reason that the agent gets a larger commission from the papers having a small circulation than is allowed on the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.
