MAGIC Stage Illusions and Scientific Diversions, including Trick Photography.

This work appeals to old and young alike, and it is one of the most attractive holiday books of the year. The illusions are illustrated by the highest class of engravings, and the exposes of the tricks are, in many cases, furnished by the prestidigitators themselves. Conjuring, large stage illusions, fire-eating, sword-swallowing, ventriloquism, mental magic, ancient magic, automata, curious toys, stage effects, photographic tricks, and the projection of moving photographs are all well described and illustrated, making a handsome volume. It is as tastefully printed and bound. Acknowledged by the Standard Work on Magic.

By A. A. HOPKINS. 568 pages. 420 illus. Price $2.50.

Spirit Slate Writing and Kindred Phenomena.

By W. E. ROBINSON. "Man of Mystery."

The author is a well-known authority on Magic art, with which he has been identified for twenty-five years. Many of his ideas have been utilized by American conjurers. For many years he was right hand man of the late Alexander Herrmann, and was also associated with Kellar. He was the original exponent of "Black Art," "Astarte," "Out of Sight," and kindred novelties. In his youth Mr. Robinson was brought up in the spiritualistic belief, but when he commenced to dabble in magic and understood its mysteries, the phenomena he often witnessed at séances became mere tricks and illusions. He has made it a study of his lifetime to acquaint himself with the methods employed by mediums to dupé their victims and on this account the work is of standard value.

155 Pages, 66 Illustrations. Price $1.00, postpaid. Full descriptive circulars of above books will be mailed free upon application.
