There are Two classes of farmers in the country—those who read HOARD'S DAIRYMAN and those who don't.

Those who DO read HOARD'S DAIRYMAN are the prosperous, intelligent, energetic kind. They wouldn't appreciate it if they were the other kind.

They buy everything that any other farmer does—because they are farmers first and dairymen afterwards.

That's why HOARD'S DAIRYMAN pays advertisers so extremely well.
