NEW BOOKS, ETC.

ASSAYING and METALLURGICAL ANALYSIS FOR THE USE OF STUDENTS, CHEMISTS, AND ASSAYERS. By E. L. Rhead and A. Humboldt Sexton, F. I. C., F. C. S. London, New York, and Bombay: Longmans, Green & Co. 8vo. Pp. x, 431.

The authors inform us that in writing the present work it was their object to provide the student, chemist or assayer with a handbook sufficiently comprehensive to include the greater part of the work likely to be required in the laboratory or assay office. Most of the improved modern methods in general use are included. The directions for work and the descriptions of processes have been made as simple as possible, to reduce the size of the book. By including the chemical reactions of the materials it has been sought to make the reasons for the procedure clear. Chemical explanations have even been given in great length. Of the three parts in which the book is divided, the first is devoted to laboratory appliances, general processes; the second considers the materials and products in which a metal's estimation is commonly required, the dry test, the methods of conducting dry assaying by fusion or otherwise, the methods of dissolving substances and preparing solutions for the determination of the metals and the method for the gravimetric, volumetric and calorimetric determination with the necessary precautions; and the third is devoted to metallurgical analysis.

ROMANCE OF NATURAL HISTORY. By P. H. Gosse. New York: New Amsterdam Book Company. 1902. Pp. 348.

As its title indicates, this book contains a poetic treatment of a scientific subject. Instead of giving statistics which are harsh and dry, the author attempts an æsthetic exposition of natural history. He does not always indicate the emotion to be elicited but he has sought to paint a series of pictures, the reflection of scenes and aspects in nature which in his mind awaken poetic interest, leaving them to do their proper work.
