TWENTY-THIRD EDITION
EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE.
By GEORGE M. HOPKINS

Revised and Greatly Enlarged. 2 Octavo Volumes. 1,100 Pages. 900 Illustrations. Cloth Bound, Postpaid, $5.00. Half Morocco, Postpaid, $7.00. Volumes Sold Separately: Cloth, $3.00 per Volume; Half Morocco, $4.00 per Volume.

EXPERIMENTAL SCIENCE is so well known to many of our readers that it is hardly necessary now to give a description of this work. Mr. Hopkins decided some months ago that it would be necessary to prepare a new edition of this work in order that the many wonderful discoveries of modern times might be fully described in its pages. Since the last edition was published, wonderful developments in wireless telegraphy, for example, have been made. It was necessary, therefore, that a good deal of new matter should be added to the work in order to make it thoroughly up-to-date, and with this object in view some 200 pages have been added. On account of the increased size of the work, it has been necessary to divide it into two volumes, handsomely bound in buckram.

The Progress of Invention In the Nineteenth Century

By EDWARD W. BYRN, A.M.

300 Illustrations. Price $3.00 by Mail, Postpaid. Half Red Morocco, Gift Top $4.00.

The most important book ever published on invention and discovery. It is as readable as a novel, being written in popular style. The book gives a most comprehensive and coherent account of the progress which distinguishes this as the "golden age of invention," resulting in industrial and commercial development which is without precedent. A chronological calendar of the leading inventions is one of the most important features of the book, enabling the reader to refer at a glance to important inventions and discoveries of any particular year. The book is printed with large type, on fine paper, and is elaborately illustrated by 300 engravings and is attractively bound.
