Safe Investments

February 25, 1905.

No government security nor high grade railroad bond will yield as great a return for the money as great a return for the money actually invested as a savings account in "The Bank that Pays 4%." And when the high standing and large capital and surplus of the institution are taken into consideration together with the character and integrity of the officers and trustees, it will be seen that no securities have a better foundation or afford greater safety.
