80,000 COPIES ALREADY SOLD!

The choice of all the remarkable photographs taken during the war for Collier's Weekly is here gathered into one splendid volume of permanent value

Collier's Photographic Record of the RUSSO-JAPANESE WAR

Now ready in one large quarto volume (11 x 15 1/2 inches), 256 pages, 570 photographs, carefully printed on special paper.

Image of a soldier in a trench with a rifle.
Caption: "The manner in which the Russo-Japanese war has been handled by Collier's is without equal in the history of journalism. These photographs were made by men who took their lives in their hands to get them. Never before has a war been so realized in pictures."
Caption: "This record presents in consecutive form and comprehensively the story of the greatest military duel of modern times. The pictures and text tell the story from the time that preparations were made in Russia and Japan down to and including the great naval battle between Togo and Rojestvensky."
Caption: "This history is not only the best of its kind, it is the only one of its kind. To turn its pages is to bring the whole campaign before one with startling vividness."
Caption: "No publication in the world has such resources for gathering material for such a record as had Collier's. Its correspondents and photographers included Richard Harding Davis, Frederick Palmer, J. H. Hare, J. F. J. Archibald, R. L. Dunn, Victor K. Bulla, H. J. Whigham, Horace Ashton, and four others. Captain Mahan, the world's greatest authority on naval warfare, writes on the naval battles between Japan and Russia."
Caption: "Can be had of local bookseller or sent by express, prepaid, on receipt of $4, in stamps, draft, money order, or registered letter. An interesting prospectus will be sent upon request."

ESSAYS ON AUTHORSHIP

SPECIAL AUTHORIZED EDITION
Complete Works of Frank Norris
$3.50 instead of $9.75
To buy these stories in the regular way costs $9.75. We have now ready a special cloth-bound edition in four octavo volumes, library style, from entirely new plates, portrait of author, and illustrations by Frederic Remington, Frank X. Leyendecker, Lucius Hitchcock and Charles E. Hooper. Price, $3.50; express prepaid on receipt of stamps, draft, money order, or registered letter.
When Frank Norris died, one of the most promising careers in this generation was broken. He looked at the teeming life around him in a big, sympathetic manner, and, among a thousand commonplace writers, took his work seriously. The life of the Middle West and the Coast was what interested him—so closely had he studied some phases of it that he may be said to have made them his own. Not to know Norris is to have missed the most characteristic American writer in his generation.
W. D. HOWELLS—"The novels he left are sufficient for his fame."
HAMLIN GARLAND—"For the throngs of marvelously realized characters in each of these books we are indebted to the keen eyes, the abounding insight, and the swift imagination of a born novelist."
The four volumes will be sent by express, prepaid, on receipt of $3.50, in stamps, draft, money order, or registered letter. A special easy-payment offer will be submitted upon request.
