New Baltimore & Ohio Terminal
Twenty-third Street, New York City

All passenger trains of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad to and from New York City now have direct ferry connection with 23d Street Terminal, in addition to Liberty Street; the South Ferry Terminal having been discontinued.

Twenty-third Street is the most popular terminal of the great metropolis because of its convenience to the hotel, theater and shopping district. In the recent remodeling of the terminal building a glass roofed canopy was constructed fifty feet wide, under which the cross-town cars of 14th, 23d, 28th and 29th Street lines pass, so that passengers are protected from the weather leaving the ferry house, and also avoid the annoyance of street traffic.

All baggage destined to New York City will be delivered to 23d Street, unless distinctly marked "Liberty Street," or otherwise.

A complete electric cab service has also been established for the transportation of passengers and baggage at very reasonable rates.

Detailed information with map may be secured at all Baltimore & Ohio Ticket Offices.

SPECIAL AUTHORIZED EDITION

Complete Works of Frank Norris

$3.50 instead of $9.75

THE PIT
THE OCTOPUS
MCTEAQUE
BLIX
A DEAL IN WHEAT
MORAN OF THE LADY LETTY
A MAN'S WOMAN
ESSAYS ON AUTHORSHIP

To buy these stories in the regular way costs $9.75. We have now ready a special cloth-bound edition in four octavo volumes, library style, from entirely new plates, portrait of author, and illustrations by Frederic Remington, Frank X. Leyendecker, Lucius Hitchcock and Charles E. Hooper. Price, $3.50 express prepaid on receipt of stamps, draft, money order, or registered letter.

When Frank Norris died, one of the most promising careers in this generation was broken. He looked at the teeming life around him in a big, sympathetic manner, and, among a thousand commonplace writers, took his work seriously. The life of the Middle West and the Coast was what interested him—so closely had he studied some phases of it that he may be said to have made them his own. Not to know Norris is to have missed the most characteristic American writer in his generation.

W. D. HOWELLS—"The novels he left are sufficient for his fame."
HAMLIN GARLAND—"For the throngs of marvelously realized characters in each of these books we are indebted to the keen eyes, the abounding insight, and the swift imagination of a born novelist."

The four volumes will be sent by express, prepaid, on receipt of $3.50, in stamps, draft, money order, or registered letter. A special easy-payment offer will be submitted upon request.
